Change ?

A caterpillar changes into a butterfly - Can you change ?

By Pastor Thomas A. Robb

It won't be long, and you will be saying "Where did 2023 go? It went by so fast!

Our lives seem to go as fast as the years. It seems like only yesterday I was 18. James 4:13 You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes. It is like steam coming off a cup of coffee.

Before your eyes can focus on the steam - it is gone!

When a new year comes people often take the opportunity to make changes in their life, so they make New Year's Resolutions. And it sort of makes sense. It's a new year with a new beginning so why not use the New Year as a motivator. Of course, some are into it in a big way - others are not.

Of the many New Year's Resolutions which are made, the most popular is - Get more exercise. But making this

Auld Lang Syne

By Attorney Jason M. Robb

Gone is 2022, and we are now in 2023. As I was thinking of an article to write for this current issue of the Torch, I was listening to Christmas music (Yes, I still love Christmas), and the song Auld Lang Syne came on. As we all know, Auld Lang Syne is a song that stops us in our tracks and makes us ponder the memories of the year that just ended or the years that have long gone by. Auld

Lang Syne was written by Scottish poet and lyricist Robert Burns (born on Jan 25, 1759, and died on July 1796). He is often promise of change is easier to say than to do. I understand that most people are unable to keep these resolutions for more than a few weeks, for some only a few days.

Elisha Smith - Time Management Strategist says only 1 in 10 will be able to maintain these changes they say they are making. Actually, this is more than I would expect. I would have guessed only 1 out of a hundred. But they make these promises to themselves because they see things in their lives which they want to change.

They promise these changes in their life because they are unhappy with something about their appearance or conduct. They are weary with their jobs, weary with their marriage, weary about where they live, weary and unhappy about all kinds of things. I am not saying these people are in a state of depression. Nor are people seeking doctor assistance suicide. They are just unhappy and weary with life.

Christian Conservative Psychologist Jordan Peterson says a part of the reason people are unhappy is because of the uncertainty of the future and the concern that what you know, your job skills, or even your experience or willingness to work aren't going to be relevant in the future. It is not easy to keep up with changes we see coming at us every day and it makes us tired and weary.

Part of this unhappiness, according to researcher Johann Hari in his book, "Stolen Focus" is people have become isolated and have not created healthy bonding relationship. This is caused primarily because people have lost control of their lives to a host of outside influences, there is a disconnection of personal contact with those around them causing anxiety, frustration and even addiction. They didn't even realize it was happening to them.

People become doubtful that their lives have any meaning or purpose. Purpose is extremely important. In fact, I venture to say the most important things you can give your child aren't toys, or new clothes, or even food or love. All these things have a place in their lives, and we certainly are to provide food, clothing and love for our children. But what they need even more than those things is purpose. Children need to know their life has a purpose - a mission - in fact a HOLY mission.

When I was a youngster growing up in Detroit, my mom might say, "Run to the store and get me a quart of milk and a loaf of bread." So off I would go on my mission. But it wasn't a Holy Mission.

However there are Holy Missions in our life. Wives and husbands have a holy mission to be faithful and loyal to each other, in plenty and in want, in joy and in sorrow, in sickness and in health.

Repetition is one of the best ways to learn. Sometimes we need to hear something repeatedly before it finally sinks in. This concept of purpose is one of those things. And as we find our way through life, we need to understand that our lives have a purpose. Children especially need to be taught they have a purpose early in life. Children learn purpose from their parents. It has been said, "Our lives are a gift from the Lord - What we do with our lives is our gift back to God." So, our purpose starts out - trusting in the Lord and making the best of our lives. There is more to life than just having fun. Because as Ecclesiastes says, "Having fun all the time accomplishes nothing." Some parents think that their job is to protect their child so they can enjoy their childhood. That is not wrong, but it is incomplete. Because parents also need to prepare their child for the day on which they will become an adult. Childhood is basic training for adulthood. Children need to have fun; it is an important part of a well-rounded life. But the other half of that well-rounded life is focusing on our purpose. Purpose gives excitement to our lives. A child with a developing sense of purpose will find it exciting and give them the self-respect that they are doing something important.

I think people make changes in their life because they feel the need to improve. And we indeed are constantly changing. The apostle

Children need to know their Life! has a purpose!

Country Boy From Detroit

I have lived in the Ozarks since 1971. In 1969 my wife and I felt lead to come to Arkansas to build a white Christian outpost in the heartland of America. So we, along with our two children (Rachel & Nathan) left Tucson, Arizona and made our journey to settle in Arkansas. We lived for a short while at the Church of our Christian Heritage, now known as the Church of Israel. Pastor Gayman of the Church of Israel was a friend of ours, having met him and his wife Delores in 1964. Later we helped raise chickens (32,000) for Arnold Murray who was the postmaster in Gravette, Arkansas. He was holding small Bible studies in his home. Later he founded Shepherds Chapel. Many of you have seen his programs on television. He died in 2014.

We then moved to Bass, Arkansas where our 3rd child, Jason, was born.

We have lived in Arkansas so long that people often think that this is our home state. Actually, my wife and I were both born in Michigan. She, in the UP while I was born in Detroit. Though my wife was born in Michigan, she grew up in the Sierra Nevada Mountains of northern California. Her father owned a small lumber mill and later worked for the US Department of Interior as a hunter and trapper. Here is a picture of her on the family mule, Jack Dempsey. Until she was about 5, the mule was the only way they could get to their home along the American River.

We met in the Colorado Rocky Mountains at a private Christian patriotic school founded by Dr. Kenneth Goff. Dan Gayman was the chief instructor.

I grew up in Detroit when it was still a nice city. The streets were nice, the schools were nice, the beaches at the lake were nice and the parks were nice.

Detroit was a nice place.

It was a good place.

Though I know it may be hard for people of today to believe, the reality is all the large cities in America were good places to raise a family. Chicago, Memphis, Philadelphia, St Louis, Los Angeles, Cleveland. Atlanta - they were ALL nice.

Everyone!

Of course, that is before the big change.

When I speak, I will sometimes say, "I'm just a country boy from Detroit." When I say that people will often laugh. And I say it somewhat as a joke. But the fact is - it's true. As a child in Detroit, we lived on a dirt road. There was the woods, open fields and a nearby pond where we would catch frogs and polliwogs.

It was a good place.

But for those who think I am joking when I say I am only a country boy from Detroit, I thought I would show this picture of me inside the chicken coop in our back yard - in Detroit!

So now I am a country boy from the Ozarks. I built my home, cut fire wood and use a wood burning fireplace. (OK, I am now old so I don't cut as much firewood as I use to.) The first couple of conferences we held, Muriel did the cooking on a wood cook stove.

The next time we have a conference we would love for you to come to the Ozarks and visit us at the Soldiers of the Cross Christian Family Retreat.

Replacement Theory Tracts

"We need to get thousands of these tracts distributed Across the country

Has God Removed His blessings from America

It certainly seems so. We hear of inflation, illegal aliens, anti-white Critical Race Theory (CRT), weakened economy and the confusion some have in determining how to tell the difference between a boy and a girl.

We are told that these are the problems Americans face,

But these are not the problems!

They are the curses we face for turning against God.

But HOW Have we Turned Against God?

We stopped loving our God and stopped loving our people!

We have allowed millions of aliens into our country with their strange gods and they uprooted the Christian values which built America!

We are being replaced. Our once beautiful cities have become cities of the 3rd world.

Our Christian culture has been debased. Deuteronomy 28:43 told our ancient Israel ancestors that the aliens we let into our country will become the "head" and we will become the "tail."

We see this where ever we look. White people are being replaced. A person of color can boast of their racial pride, but if a white person does it they are called racist!

100 for Only $20

We need this tract distributed by the thousands throughout the country. There are many people being sucked up into the One World Church. They have hijacked our very best nature - a nature of compassion - and have twisted it to take us to a very dark place that ends up in White Genocide. Unfortunately, the churches have been the main culprits in this evil and depraved activity. These tracts can be left on counter tops, in stores, or rest rooms. They are small and it can be easily done without attracting attention to your self. You can also simply mail a few out each week.

The price includes postage, but if you are able to send a couple dollars for the postage that would be helpful. The tract offers a free DVD to those who wish more information. Your tithe and contribution to the Church will help toward the production and mailing of these DVDs.

Endurance Thoughts for a New Year By Muriel Robb

Hebrews 10:36

"For you have need of endurance, so that after you have done the will of God, you may receive the promise."

We must have patience (endurance) and understand that God's time and our time is not always the same. In fact, it is seldom the same! Sometimes we become impatient with God and even become disappointed with God. When that happens, we are in danger of turning onto another path. It begins slowly as we begin to pull back, dis-fellowship ourselves with others and grow apathetic to the issues of the day and the cause of Christ. Though denying it, they actually demonstrate shame for our Christian Identity beliefs.

These lukewarm (fearful) believers will be spit out of his mouth (see also Rev. 3:16). It is sad but as we have noticed over the years many will be faithful for 3-5 years and then their

See ENDURANCE page 12

Dear Pastor Robb:

I want 100 of those Replacement Tracts. What a wonderful idea and then the free DVD. I am praying that it bear tremendous fruit for God's Kingdom.

You and your ministry is in my daily prayers. Thank you for all you do.

Dale H / PA

Dear Sir:

I am writing to you to suggest an idea I had. I would do it myself, but don't have the money. My suggestion is that scholarships be made available to young white men who want to go to college but can't afford it. I don't think that there should be any string attached for them. All they must do is promise that they take their studies seriously and be a credit to our race. They must obey the law, marry within their own race and try to set an example for other young white men.

I think this would have a great impact for the benefit of the white race.

I hope you will begin doing this soon.
No Name / NV

Dear "No Name:"

I assume you are on our mailing list. And I don't really want to mock your suggestion, because it would be nice if such scholarship possibilities existed . . . But right now we would just like to have enough money to finish the dinning hall at the church. Sorry!

Dear Christian Friends:

Thank you so much for the latest Torch. It was very inspiring and I feel an even more desire to promote the cause of White Christian revival. True there are others who say the same things you say - but you say it better. Your ministry is destined to grow because America needs to hear the message of White Christian Revival.

Mark H / LA

PS: I love the phrase: White Christian Revival, as you can see.

Dear Pastor Robb:

It was so nice to see you and your family at the meeting in Houston, Missouri last October.

Your message was right on point. You seem to be very comfortable with your calling, teaching and preaching. Your children were very fortunate to have you and Mrs Robb as their parents. Thank you for all you do. Say Hello to the whole gang. Stay well and take your vitamins. With love in Christ Jesus.

Paul shows us a way to find purpose and value in our lives and avoid the disconnection that leads to frustration and anxiety. Rom 12:1-2 “I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. 2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.”

It takes a strong person to sacrifice themselves to the Lord and to transform their minds. Here is a good verse dealing with change and transformation and of course the need to “sacrifice” yourself so you can make the change. “Therefore, if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new,” 2 Corinthians 5:17.

When a person joins the army - they go through basic training - The reason for that is because they want to make you into a new creature - they want to change you - old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. But it is the same in all walks of life or careers. The person who wants to become a barber goes to barber school to be changed. They are going to change you from someone who can't give a good hair cut to someone who can. The person going to trucker school will be changed from someone who can't drive an 18-wheeler to someone who can. The barber, trucker etc. are made into new creatures.

The same for us who are aware of this rebellion against all those things we know to be good, we have this purpose - this Holy Mission - and we must be willing to make changes in life if we want to effectively protect those things which we hold dear. Paul says; “Let the mind be in you that was also in Christ Jesus,” Philippians 2: 5.

Taking on this mind of Christ takes some self-examination. Are we taking on the mind of Christ when we are judgmental, gossiping, using unclean speech, unjustified anger. Do the things we say or post on the internet reflect the mind of Christ.

Think about it!

And the reason we need to strengthen ourselves is because there are all kinds of people watching you. When others watch you, are you helping them to become stronger or are you helping them to become weaker? Paul is telling us we need to separate ourselves from the image of the world and change our connection to Jesus Christ.

We need that connection. As Johann Hari, pointed out, the reason we see such anger, anxiety, and depression is because technology has disconnected us from people. So, Paul, 2000 years ago, long before the internet, cell phones and social media is warning us to keep connected to Jesus Christ.

And we don't need to wait until next year to make a New Year's resolution. We can connect to Jesus Christ and begin the transformation of our lives every day.

Every day the world is disconnecting more and more people from their families, their history, their culture, their heritage, their forefathers, and their Christian Faith. Agents of the Satanic Rebellion are changing our laws, our history, our values, and our morals. In fact, the only things that are now being constructed as being immoral are racism and Christianity. They hate Christianity for two reasons Christians put the authority of Jesus Christ over the government. Tyrants really hate that. Also, Christianity puts restrictions on man's sinful nature.

So, we need this connection with Jesus Christ in our lives. We need to dedicate ourselves to the service of God and we do this by transforming ourselves - changing ourselves to the perfect will of God. And again, we don't have to wait until the new year. Of course, we cannot do it alone. We must allow ourselves to be changed by the spirit of God. As we know there are powerful forces at work against God's people. Paul identifies this as

This Drill Sergeant is going to change this recruit into a New Creature!

It's no Disgrace To Love your Race!

To love one's own family and one's own kind is the most natural, positive feeling in the world. And what else is our race, but a gigantic, extended family, bound together by common ties of blood and kinship, of culture and history? Yet white people today are told that loving their race and having pride in its accomplishments is wrong. While "minority" groups are openly encouraged to show racial and ethnic unity, and to work together for their groups interests. Whites are told that it is "hate" and "racism" for them to do the same thing. What insanity.

Love your race, take pride in it and help build a better future for your children. END

Your Estate Can Continue the Campaign for White Christian Revival After Your Death

A charitable bequest is simply a distribution from your estate to a charitable organization by means of your Last Will and Testament. To insure your instructions are followed accurately, you must use very specific language to tell precisely where your assets (regardless of how small or large it may be) are to go. This insures your final wishes will be successfully carried out. In any charitable bequest, be sure to accurately give the name and address of where your bequest is to be directed.

If you would like to leave a portion of your estate to the Christian Revival Center, contact the law firm of Jason M. Robb at 870-743-2215 and he will prepare your Last Will and Testament at no charge to you or to the church. He will be able to handle this for you regardless of where you live. In other words, you do not have to be a resident of Arkansas.

If you already have your Will prepared by your own attorney, you can simply ask your attorney to add the Christian Revival Center. Jason Robb will be happy to provide proper information to your attorney.

It is important that you take care of this as soon as possible to avoid seizure of your assets, upon your death, by the state.

regarded as the national poet of Scotland. Auld Lang Syne was written in 1788 but didn't appear in print until shortly after his death in 1796. The song was and still is very popular with people in all different settings: funerals, New Year's Day celebrations, or Scottish celebrations. The first stanza and chorus start in the English version with the following:

*"Should old acquaintance be forgotten,
And never brought to mind?
Should old acquaintances be forgotten?
And old lang Syne?"*

*(Chorus)
For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne,
We'll take a cup of kindness, yet,
For auld lang syne."*

As I previously mentioned, the song stirs your soul and makes you remember the past. It makes you start thinking of the good old days. As I listened to the music, I started reflecting on our beloved American Republic. Just hearing the name "America" fills me with happiness, patriotism, and wonderment. America is a special and holy country. America is a land many believe was prophesied by God and laid to wait for the descendants of Israel, the people of Europe that we commonly call the white race to come and discover. Here they built a mighty nation for the regathering of his people as foretold in Scripture.

Nathaniel Morton, the historian of the first years of the settlement in America, thus opens his history of the Plymouth Plantation:

"Gentle reader, I have for some lengths of time looked upon it as a duty incumbent especially on the immediate successors of those that have had so large experience of those many memorable and signal demonstrations of God's goodness, viz, the first beginners of this Plantation in New England, to commit to writings his gracious dispensations of that behalf; having so many inducements thereunto, not only otherwise, but so plentifully in the Sacred Scriptures: that so, what we have seen, and what our fathers told us (Psalm lxxiii.3,4), we may not hide from our children, showing to the generations to come the praises of the Lord; that especially the seed of Abraham his servant, and the children of Jacob his chosen (Psalm cv, 5,6), may remember his marvelous works in the beginning and progress of the planting of New England, his wonders and the judgments of his mouth; how that God brought a vine into this wilderness; that he cast out the heathen, and planted it; that he made room for it and caused it to take deep root; and in it filled the land (Psalm lxxx 8,9). And not only so, but also that he had guided his people by his strength to his holy habitation and precious Gospel enjoyments...." In Democracy in America, Alexis de Touqueville wrote: "It is impossible to read this opening paragraph without an involuntary feeling of religious awe...in our eyes, as well as in his own, it was not a mere party of adventurers gone forth to seek their fortune beyond seas, but the germ of a great nation wafted by Providence to a predestined shore."

In II Samuel 7:10, it states, "And I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them that he may dwell in a place of his own; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict him anymore." America is that appointed place.

For years, Reverend F. E. Pitts of Nashville,

“principalities, powers and spiritual wickedness in high places.” These powerful forces are in rebellion to God and the only way it can win the rebellion is through white genocide which would mean God was unwilling or unable to keep the Covenant made with Abraham and Sarah.

Paul writes “Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin,” Romans 6:6.

Paul refers to this old sin nature as the old man. This old man dwells in sin, and the society which will emerge out of that sin nature is the total depravity of Sodomy and miscegenation. Even today within the wide spider web of the One World Church there are churches and preachers who will speak out against the depravity of Sodomy but because they don't have the mind of Christ, they embrace the depravity of miscegenation. Race-mixing has been totally embraced by our society as well as the vast majority of our Christian ministers.

But the overwhelming vast majority of preachers are afraid to speak out against race-mixing because they are afraid, they will be called racist.

That is why those who are Fearful are the first listed to be rejected at the coming of Christ. Revelation 21:8 “But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whore mongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.” Fear is a powerful emotion that can both protect us and destroy us. In fact, all our emotions, love, anger, fear, hatred, jealousy, and greed have the power to make us stronger or make us weaker. Without Jesus in our lives these emotions will make us weak and will destroy us. But with Jesus, these same emotions will make us stronger.

Jesus says, “Come unto me all ye that are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest” Matt 11:28.

It makes no difference what we are weary from. Life is hard, we all face challenges, they may be personal, maybe work related, perhaps we think it seems like we just can't get a break in life - it seems like we go from one crisis to another. Perhaps we are weary because it seems like no matter what we do - the vile corruption in our nation continues. Maybe it is weariness in our health, weariness in our old age - we can't do what once was so easy. There are all kinds of things that make us weary. Back in 1981 Country star Don Williams released the song, “Lord, I hope this day is good - I'm feelin' empty and misunderstood -I should be thankful, Lord, I know I should - But Lord I hope this day is good.”

There is the story in the Bible of a woman who was being dragged through the streets of Jerusalem. There were taunts, and curses hurled at her. Her day probably started out pretty routine but suddenly the doors were busted open, and she was grabbed up by some men screaming at her.

She struggled to cover herself, she flailed at them, but they soon overpowered her. Pulled out into the streets, people nearby looked to see what the commotion was all about. Now she is helpless as they dragged and pushed her down the streets of Jerusalem. Soon she was thrust to the feet of Jesus. The Pharisees commanded Jesus to answer their demands. “This woman was caught in the act of adultery and the law of Moses said she is to be stoned What do you say?” The Bible says they were trying to trap Jesus.

Jesus then wrote something on the ground and then asked the Pharisees, “Let he who is without sin cast the first stone.” No one knows for sure what he wrote, but I suggest he wrote

AULD LANG SYNE from page 8

Tennessee, has been speaking across the nation, identifying America as the regathering place of Israel. His message was so well received, that in 1857, on the anniversary of George Washington's birthday, he was invited to deliver two addresses on this subject before the Congress of the United States. He gave 15 reasons why he believed America was the restoration of Israel.

These were just some of the memories I was reflecting on about America when I heard Auld Lang Syne being sung. I remembered the sacrifices of our ancestors in building this beloved nation. I remember my dad's stories about how beautiful Detroit was in the 50s when he was growing up there. I remember watching old-time movies and film reels displaying beautiful landscapes and clean cities and seeing beautiful white families. I love hearing how America was a Christian nation and how our laws and government reflected it.

However, that was the past. Our once beloved America that God blessed is no more. God has removed his blessings from America since our nation accepted miscegenation and homosexuality, the two great sins that defy the laws of nature. Our once beloved white Christian America now conducts itself as a non-Christian country and is on the fast track to becoming a non-white country that openly accepts all races and religions. As a result, our cities are unsafe third-world countries; our nation is trillions of dollars in debt, robbing our children of their future. Millions (used to be thousands) of illegals are crossing our border; white people are the target of our enemies. Our Christian faith is being hunted down. Isn't diversity great? There are many more examples we could come up with regarding our beloved America and how it has quickly fallen.

Yet, in all of this reflection of America's glorious past, I am still reminded that God has not given up on our people, and he has not given up on our beloved America. I always remind myself that if America is Israel's regathering place, will God allow America to be destroyed?

The answer is simply no. It doesn't mean that America will not go through some deep turmoil and pain. But it is not going to be discarded. America is God's Holy habitation. This land we walk on is God's Holy ground. We also have to remember that God always remembers His covenants. And the one and most important covenant is the Abrahamic Covenant established with our people. This is a covenant that God promised to Abraham and to all his generations. It was a promise that God swore by himself. It's an unbreakable covenant. Psalms 105: 6 states, "O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen. (7) He is the Lord our God: his judgments are in all the earth. (8) He hath remembered his covenant forever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations. (9) Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac; (10) And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant."

Finally, as white Christians, we must remember that we each have a duty to remain faithful and obedient to God in 2023. Nothing has changed. I am reminded of Ezekiel's commission. God told Ezekiel in 2:6, "And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. (7) And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are most rebellious. (8) But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee."

When looking at the trouble we are in today, we have to remember that God is still King, He is still in control, and we as individuals still have a responsibility to be faithful to God and stand regardless of what happens.

It is good to remember the good ole days of America and her glorious past. However, with the trouble upon us today, we need to remember that God is still King and He is still in control. Each of us must still remember our responsibility to stand faithful for God and for our people. END something to remind them that it was against the law to bear false witness. Because as a group they made their demands - but there was not even one of those men who would make a public accusation. Why. Because the law said if you bear false witness it is you who will be punished.

This woman was at the feet of the God who formed her in her mother's womb. He formed her mouth and ears and gave her a beating heart and even knew how many hairs were on her head. "Where are your accusers?" he asked her. She said: "There are none." Then Jesus said, "neither do I condemn you." Like this woman brought to the feet of Jesus. Each of us at some point will feel beaten down, exhausted, and weary with burdens that seem impossible to bear.

In our weary state Jesus says I will give you rest, and I will change you and make you strong. Isaiah 40:3: "But they that wait (The Hebrew word translated wait means to be twisted together) upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint." Learning to develop that connection can be difficult but it begins the same way as you eat a cow - one bite at a time. Prov 3:5-6 "Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy commitment begins to wane. They start out full of drive, wanting to be active in the "fight," for race, faith and homeland, but life or the world slowly sucks away their spirit and they end up becoming inactive and useless.

Naturally, there are excuses: job, kids, too busy, and of course other distractions all will test your love for Christ, His people and America. The zeal to spread the message, blowing the trumpet and evangelizing the message of what we call White Christian Revival has all disappeared. It would have been better if they had never heard the message than hear, believe and then turn away. They are lukewarm and have become a stumbling block to others. Such a person will hear the words from Jesus, "I never knew you." And I suppose it is likely that they never really "knew him!"

Some may think this is a warning to the "other guy," you know the average Christian who is honest, works, goes to church, prays and sings the hymns. Perhaps! But don't point the finger. This may be a warning to you. If you heard and believed the latter-day prophecies concerning our Israel identity, warning of societies acceptance of sodomy and miscegenation and then you return to that vomit thinking it is perhaps best to just go about your business and ignore this terrible plague upon our people.

Your weakness will testify against you on the day of judgment! END
