AN APPEAL TO HEAVEN!

By Jason McAllister Robb J.D.

The Pine Tree was an early symbol of America's battle for independence. It appeared on a flag with the words "An Appeal to Heaven."

As in the days of the founding of this Republic, we are living in times when we, as a people need to make an appeal to heaven. But what does this mean? This phrase is often heard in Christian circles and was used by British philosopher and writer, John Locke, who had a tremendous impact on early American society. In Chapter 14 of Lock's Second Treatise on Civil Government which was published in 1690 as part of Two Treatises of Government, countering the proposition of the Divine Right of Kings. They knew their rights didn't come from King George but from King Jesus.

Are you Listening?

By Thomas A Robb

"And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men love darkness rather than light, because their deeds are evil." John 3:19

Some will listen - most will not! And it isn't surprising that most won't listen because the Bible is clear - men love darkness rather than light.

This verse in John cuts right to the heart of the issues we face today. Sin has a most alluring and captivating attraction. Sin is false worship. It is thinking that our way, though evil they may be, will bring us the happiness we want. Sin is narcissism to the core. We are going to do it our way and no one will stop us. This is the emotion that is motivating those, who in this generation embrace sodomy and those in an earlier generation embraced miscegenation.

"Men love darkness rather than light, because their deeds are evil."

Narcissism is a word derived from the Greek god Narcissus.

In A Garden!

By Muriel L. Robb

I love spring and autumn in the Ozarks. Such a beautiful time. I am a nature girl and the saying, "One is closer to God in a garden than anyplace else on earth!" fits me perfectly. It's the perfect place to pray - to pour out your heart to the Lord. So often we are shown prayers - formal and ritualistic. You know - Here is your morning prayer - Here is your evening prayer etc. This, of course, is found more in the Catholic Church and its offspring, Lutheran, Church of England, Episcopal than in more Evangelistic churches. I guess there is nothing inherently wrong with these prepared prayers and, evidently, for some people it satisfies their need to feel religious. It just isn't me. I like prayers that come from the heart and not a prayer prepared for me by a theologian.

Haven't we all, when weary, sad and troubled felt closer to our savior when walking a wooded pathway, viewing mountains, a meadow, a brook or looking into the heavens. It is in those quiet moments when there is nothing artificial blocking your connection to the Lord.

May is a special time for me. My birthday is in May, my eldest son was born in May, my 50 plus years (wedding anniversary) as a preacher's wife and my husband's ordination into the ministry who has stood faithfully as a shepherd, pastor, leader, father, husband and a warrior priest since his ordination began in May (1966). Our youngest turns 50 next year. We followed the Lord's leading when we uprooted ourselves from Arizona in 1971 and moved to Arkansas, not even knowing where we were going. We simply loaded up everything we had and started the journey to the Ozarks. We staked out this white Christian outpost in rural Boone County, Arkansas and then planned and worked the growth of the Christian Revival Center along with the development of this White Christian Retreat.

I know that no matter where you live there is beauty in God's abundance, whether it is the beauty of flowers in an Ozark meadow, the towering pines on a lofty Colorado mountain top, a sea gull swooping down to catch his prey on the rocky Atlantic coastline of New England. God, in all places is speaking to us through His creation. Spring is also the time when we reflect on the sacrifice of the Holy Lamb of God on Calvary's cross. He came and conquered death and sealed His covenant with you and I, the children of that wonderful covenant made to Abraham and Sarah.

Though the children of the covenant have become corrupt, through his death and resurrection we have reason for hope eternal. The great sins which Jesus Christ identified to be the end of this present evil world (sodomy and miscegenation) is in evidence on every side.

Gird up your families, get out of the cities, fellowship with those who share a love for our God and our people. Study to gain knowledge, have joy in your life, walk and talk with the Lord. Be thankful and not prideful of the grace Christ has given you.

Don't fight with others over doctrinal disputes. Your redemption is not because you have the "right" doctrines of the church but because you are under the blood of Jesus Christ. We are the children of the Most High God. Let your life shine as a light before others. Then take a walk down a wooded pathway, be filled with the wonder of a mountain, a meadow, a brook and the heavens. These things are the Garden of the Lord. It will give you peace and strength to fight the good fight. Remember, "One is closer to God in a garden than anyplace else on earth!"

By Rachel M. Pendergraft M.A.

The primary goal of TED is the dissemination of important ideas. So, what if Jesus was invited to give a TED Talk? What would he have to say? What would be his primary objective? What would his mission statement consist of, and who would his intended audience be? Of course, we do not have to wonder because Jesus already outlined his mission and the reason for his death and resurrection.

For much of the history of the Church, the salvation of the sinner has been the premier objection. Numerous controversies have erupted regarding the nature of salvation (Soteriology). Some teach that man is so degenerate that his spirit cannot even whisper out to God for assistance because the carnal man hates (is at enmity) with God. With the fall of man, not even a remnant of God's spirit remained. Others teach that man was made in the image of God, and despite the snare of entrapment and disobedience there, he still has a longing to eat of the tree of life, which can only be satisfied by a union with Jesus Christ. Whatever your opinion or judgment on the matter, one thing seems inevitable. Both concepts tend to become man centered.

Why do I say this? It is because the Church has been preoccupied with the topic of salvation, and why is that? It is similar to country music singer Toby Keith's song, which was popular back in the mid-2000s, "I want to talk about me." Salvation is such an integral part of historic Church theology because man is naturally curious about his life post-death. This was a concern for the sons and daughters of Adam and Eve from the beginning and is a concern that, for the most part, has not been shared by the pre-Adamite races. This is as it should be, for the law was given to our people (descendants of the Israelites), and it is we who are held accountable for its transgression.

In Exodus 29:45 after our Israel ancestors, became a nation, God said, “And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. (46) And they shall know that I am the Lord their God, that brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them: I am the Lord their God.” So, Locke as well as our Christian founding fathers knew that when tyranny arose, and when all of our pleas have been exhausted to the government, our only hope and ultimate plea and petition has to be to our God. Therefore, Locke wrote: “And where the body of the people, or any single man, is deprived of their right, or is under the exercise of a power without right, and have no appeal on earth, then they have a liberty to appeal to heaven, whenever they judge the cause of sufficient moment. And therefore, though the people cannot be judge, so as to have, by the constitution of that society, any superior power, to determine and give effective sentence in the case; yet they have, by a law antecedent and paramount to all positive laws of men, reserved that ultimate determination to themselves which belongs to all mankind, where there lies no appeal on earth, viz. to judge, whether they have just cause to make their appeal to heaven.”

John Locke had a tremendous impact on the early colonists and was often cited by the founding fathers. In fact, Richard Henry Lee, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, saw the Declaration as being inspired from the writings of Locke. Locke was not only one of the most-cited political philosophers during the Founding Era, but the single most frequently-cited source in the years from 1760–1776 (the period leading up to the Declaration of Independence).

Our founding fathers designed and created America to be a White, Christian nation. It was to be a special and separate nation - a nation like no other. Just like Biblical Israel, America was created and designed for a particular people, a holy people. Evidence shows that the white race is the offspring of those ancient Covenant people - the scattered tribes of Israel. Acts 10:36, “The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all.”), Romans 9:4, “Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises.”

Just like Israel, America was created and designed for White Christians. And just like Israel in Exodus 33:16 the Lord would be the God and King of Israel (America as well). “For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? Is it not in that thou goest with us? So shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth?” For example, on March 26, 1790, the first session of the U.S. Congress gave us our first immigration law which limited U.S. Citizenship as follows: “Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of American in Congress assembled, That, any alien, being a free white person, who shall have resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States for the term of two years, may be admitted to become a citizen thereof, on application to any common law court of record.”

John Jay, writing in the Federalist Paper #2 stated, “With equal pleasure I have as often taken notice that Providence has been pleased to give this one connected country to one united people- a people descended from the same ancestors, speaking the same language, professing the same religion, attached to the same principles of government, very similar in their manners and customs, and who, by their joint counselors, arms, and efforts fighting side by side throughout a long and bloody war, have nobly established general liberty and independence.” Supreme Court Chief Justice John Marshall states, “No person, I believe, questions the importance of religion to the happiness of man. The American population is entirely Christian and with us Christianity and religion are identified.”

In 1840, United States v. Dow, the Supreme Court said, “The colonists were all of the white race, and all professed the Christian religion...If any person of a different color or professing a different religion had come onto the colony, he would not, at that time, have been recognized as an equal by the colonists, or deemed of participating with them in the privileges of this community.”

All the territories created in North America up until 1863 specified that citizens are to consist of “free white persons:” The Territory of Indiana -1808; The Territory of Orleans – 1811; The territory of Illinois -1812; The Territory of Missouri -1812; the Territory of Mississippi – 1814; The territory of Michigan -1819; The Territory of Alabama – 1819; the Territory of Florida – 1822; the Territory of Arkansas -1832; the Territory of Wisconsin -1836; the Territory of Iowa – 1838; the Territory of Oregon – 1848; the Territory of Minnesota -1849; the Territory of Oregon – 1848; the Territory of Minnesota -1849; the Territory of Utah -1850; the Territory of New Mexico -1850; the Territory of Washington -1853; the Territory of Nebraska -1854; The territory of Kansas -1858; the Territory of Colorado -1861; the Territory of Nevada -1861; the Territory of Dakota -1861; the Territory of Idaho -1863. However, our leaders have betrayed the children of the Republic, which are the White Christians and abandoned the laws of the Bible.

In the book of Jeremiah, the prophet laments about the destruction of his beloved city, Jerusalem, as Israel's leaders betrayed their people and their God. Remember, we are the same people of Israel. Just like the days of Jeremiah, we as a people lament the destruction of our beloved America. A nation built by our people and for our people. Our people see the destruction of America and pray to God to deliver them from this filth. Jeremiah 2:21 says, “Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me? (23) How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? See thy way in the valley, now what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;...(25) There is no hope; no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go...(27) for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us. (28) But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? Let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah. (29) Wherefore will ye plead with me? Ye all have transgressed against me, saith the Lord.”

Likewise, in America, the people plead to our government for deliverance because of the troubles we are seeing. That isn't working. And now we must make our Appeal to Heaven for deliverance because of the immorality we see around us. But what is our people pleading to God for? and what are they pleading to be delivered from? Yes, our people see the massive illegal aliens flooding into America (reportedly 5 million illegals just in the 2 ½ years of China Joe's presidency and this doesn't count the so called legal nonwhite immigration), the transgender movement, the body mutilation of our children, abortion, and devaluation of our money. But these are just the results of our sins. If we are going to make an appeal to heaven, our people need to recognize that they have betrayed God by accepting the two greatest sins: race mixing and homosexuality. See Luke 17:26-30. In the days of Noah, you had race mixing and in the days of Lot, there was rampant homosexuality. These were the two signs before the return of God. These are crimes against nature. Race and gender. America, the regathering place of Israel as foretold in Scripture, was founded and created for White Christians. Our forefathers acknowledged it through our laws, our people acknowledged it through their actions and customs. America was a White nation and a Christian nation. However, we have betrayed the laws in the Bible by accepting miscegenation and homo-sexuality. As a result, America's holy vine that was planted by God has been corrupted and polluted. If we are going to destroy the corruption within America and be under God's blessings again, then we need to acknowledge our sins of miscegenation and homosexuality and remove it from our land and start loving our God and loving our people. That must be the Appeal to Heaven we need to pray for. Just like 2 Chronicles 7:14 says, “If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.”

According to the legend, Narcissus was a hunter who was so beautiful that everyone fell in love with him. He was told he would have a long life as long as he never saw his image.

But Narcissus angered Nemesis who tricked him into looking at his image in a pool of water. The beauty of Narcissus was so captivating that he could not stop looking at himself and eventual grew weak, fell in and drowned.

Therefore the legend gave us the word Narcissistic. Narcissism is the attempt to fulfill the lie of the Serpent when he told Eve, "Ye shall be as God."

The definition of Narcissism has been given to mean,

"narcissistic personality disorder is a recognized clinical mental health condition in which people have an unreasonably high sense of their own importance. People evincing narcissistic traits depend on attention from others, and often lack the ability to care about the feelings of others."

This is the perfect description of many politicians and those sucked into the global financial economy. It is the elite who consider themselves above the "law," they are as gods, giving laws for us that does not apply to them.

We usually like to blame Democrats, but there are many Republicans who are equally guilty and swim in the cult of Narcissism. It would be impossible to put a party label to it. I suppose if you felt the need to give it a label, it would be Talmudism. It would also be couched in the warning Christ gave his disciples when he said "Beware of the leaven (doctrine) of the Pharisees." This leaven of the Pharisees has now affected the whole "lump" and today we are feeling the scourge of this evil culture.

The base line for a narcissist seems to reject established moral law which is also an affront to the law of liberty found only in Jesus Christ.

So the Narcissist says to Christians, "Your Christian religion is an attempt to try to control my freedom." The Narcissist mentality, which we recognize as WOKE culture, is promoting Christianity as a religion of hate. Because Christianity puts restriction on their sin. This is also why, we hear that Christian Nationalism is the enemy of democracy. In the world of WOKEISM democracy is the liberty to do what ever a person wants. Christians says "No!" you can't shake your butt in my child's face, etc.

This Narcissistic Personality Disorder (NPD) is the sin which controls us. It is what makes us think we don't have to submit to the authority of God, because we will decide for ourselves. We are declaring to be God. We can do what we want, when we want and the only authority we must obey is our authority. It is "Do your own thing!" taken to the extreme.

Although hidden under many code words and layers, this was the sewer from which Critical Race Theory emerged. Critical Race Theory (Originally called Critical Theory) was "developed" by the Institute for Social Research, located at Goethe University in Frankfurt, Germany. The Chancellor of the Germany Revival was acutely aware of its hatred for Germany's Christian Culture and it was forced out of Germany. By 1935 it rooted itself at New York's Columbia University and began pounding on the doors of America's liberal academia circles creating the turbulent 60s from which we still have not recovered.

This communistic Narcissistic agenda was able to flourish and engulf the generation of the Baby Boomers or what I call the Cursed Generation.

There is a ton of information that could be unwrapped dealing with such notable individuals as Sen. Joseph McCarthy, Whitaker Chambers, Elizabeth Bentley, Alger Hiss, Martin Luther King, Myles Horton, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, General Douglas MacArthur, Harry Truman, Saul Alinsky, Oswald Spengler, and many more.

I suspect that for most of you reading this will find it interesting however, we must understand that for most people it means nothing - it is blah, blah, blah - ancient history.

But what they are alarmed about is: why are adult men dressing up like women and shaking their butts in front of little children? Why are men able to compete and win the trophy in women sports? Why are aliens flooding in to our nation? Why are our large cities unsafe? Why does it seem every thing we buy comes from China. Why are parents at school board meetings being treated like domestic terrorists? Why are the J-6ers still in jail?

We no longer are dealing with liberals vs Conservatives, Democrats vs Republicans or even Blue (brown) states vs Red (white) states. This is Nevertheless, much of the emphasis on salvation is because of our own desire to "save our skin," as the saying goes – or "save our spirit," if you prefer it thusly stated. There is absolutely nothing wrong with teaching or discussing salvation. However, one must be careful not to prioritize the message of salvation – alone.

Paul had warned about those who had crept into the Church to pollute sound teaching, bring in other doctrines and subvert the flock. "For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake." Who were those of the "circumcision"? (Titus 1: 10-11). Jesus had rebuked the Pharisees when they came questioning why the disciples did not follow the "traditions of the Elders" (Matt 15:1-3). Moreover, what were the "Traditions of the Elders" but none other than the oral law of the Jews.

According to Jewish tradition, God not only gave Moses written laws, but also an unwritten oral law. Over the years, that unwritten law was commented upon and then written down in the Babylonian Talmud during the Judean exile in Babylon under Nebuchadnezzar and later under Cyrus. They returned with a mixed multitude, and the Traditions formulated into the Talmud. Jesus and the early Christians, especially Paul, contended with those Jewish fables which began to creep into the Church early on, claiming many practices to violate the law, which in fact, were only a violation of their Talmudist law, not the Mosaic law.

It is important to understand that "those of the circumcision" has attempted to usurp and undermine our authority. Furthermore, they have sought to divert our attention from the Gospel of Jesus Christ. For example, how many times have you heard sincere Christians and preachers claim that one of the major distinguishing factors between the early Christians and the Jews was that the Christians sought a spiritual kingdom, and the Jews sought an earthly kingdom? I still hear that, even from those who understand our Israelite heritage. Is it because the ancient enemies of Christ do not want us to fight for or pursue Godly government? Instead, we spend our days thinking about whether or not we are going to be accorded a spot in Heaven. Either Jesus brought redemption to his people when he was crucified on Calvary, or he did not. I believe he did. However, whether or not I believe it does not change the fact of his redemptive plan. So as important as that is, what did Jesus want us to do while we are here?

Pharisees demand Jesus obey the Traditions of the Elders.

To keep people focused on their own salvation rather than doing what we were told in Luke 19:13, "occupy until I come," our core duty has been philosophized into some spiritual Candy Land where we seek many mansions and good times. Jesus Christ told us that John 18:36 declares, "my kingdom is not of this world." But that seemingly contradicts the command to pray that "thy Kingdom come." Did our people somehow lose the Dominion Mandate when Christ came? No. He promised us the authority to rule with Christ in the Kingdom, which is not of this world (Greek Kosmos meaning Arrangement of things, system).

And when he was demanded of the Pharisees when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, the kingdom of God cometh not with observation: (Luke 17:20) But we are told it WILL come. What is coming? It is none other than the Government of Jesus Christ. As Luke continues in verses 26-37, there are signs for believers. We should expect to see similar fleshly circumstances as it was during the days of Noah and Lot, which were the mixing of Adamite and Non Adamite seed (days of Noah) and sodomy (days of Lot). But go back to Luke 17:20 because it does not say that the government of God will never be observed, only that its emergence or "coming" will not be observed. Furthermore, Luke continues, "Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it." Many have interpreted this to mean that those who only attempt to save their fleshly body or life in defiance of what is righteous in

Some say there are only 15 million (only!) illegal migrants in America. But others say there are as many as 30 million illegal migrants.

The US has a population of 332 million.

If there are 15 million migrants that would mean one out of every 22 people you see on the streets are here illegally.

If the newer figures are accurate that would mean one out of every 11 people you see on the streets are here illegally.

Welcome Migrants! America is being invaded!

Welcome to America! And America is changing. The change is not good, and the children.

The 3rd World invasion! If you think we are having a wait until these "minorities" become the majority! What will your children do?

THAT is why we need Jesus!

100 for only $20

We need these tracts distributed by the thousands throughout the country. There are many people being sucked up into the One World Church. The One World Church has hijacked our very best nature - a nature of compassion - and have twisted it to take us to a very dark place that ends up in White Genocide. The One World Church is guilty of making evil "good" and good "evil."

These tracts can be left on counter tops, in stores, or rest rooms. They are small and can be easily distributed without attracting attention to your self. You can also simply mail a few out each week. You can order 50 of each for the same price.

The price includes postage, but if you are able to send a couple extra dollars to help on postage that would be helpful. The tract offers a free DVD to those who wish more information. Your tithe and contribution to the Church will help toward the production and mailing of these DVDs.

God's sight will lose their life. I believe that is accurate. However, it is interesting that this statement is placed in the context of a discussion of the coming of God's kingdom. Are we too focused on our own lives that we neglect God's emerging Kingdom, present in Israel's regenerated sons and daughters, and the command to love them? Hebrews 11:13 tells us that these all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. Unfortunately, many have construed this to mean those men and women of faith were mere transitory migrants on earth, i.e., just passing through. However, while it is true that "pilgrims" does connote arriving from somewhere else, pilgrims are also settlers. It is not the saved Christian pilgrims that Luke tells us will be plucked up and removed one by one, but rather those cast out that will be removed. Our work is not of this "order," but is in this world, for Jesus told us in Matthew 13 how the Kingdom of God was like a mustard seed, at first small, but eventually grew strong, mighty, and a most excellent tree.

Yes, Jesus Christ came to save that which was lost, and according to Matthew 15, that was the "lost sheep of the House of Israel" to whom he had made promises to "the fathers" and came to confirm those. Those promises, often called the Abrahamic covenant, were promised to Abraham

Greetings Pastor Robb:

I very much enjoyed the article about Dietrich Bonhoeffer. Many years ago I came across Glen Beck praising traitor Bonhoeffer and I felt enough revulsion to drop G. Beck right then and there. So this article in The Torch was great. Thank you.

Dear Thomas Robb:

I get sick of hearing about what a great Christian leader Dietrich Bonhoeffer was. A friend of mine showed me the article in the Identity publication I think you referenced (though you did not name it so I am not sure) that a few years also gave sickening praise to Bonhoeffer. I understand how the sheep can be fooled. But how can Christian patriots, especially Identity patriots be so completely ignorant about his entanglement with our enemies? Bonhoeffer was a scorpion! Your article was "on point."

and Sara, wherein they were promised to be a "father of many nations" and a "mother of many nations." They and their descendants would receive the blessings of God (Representatives of these nations were present in Acts when the indwelling of the Holy Spirit allowed the men and women followers of Christ to speak so that those present could hear God's message in their own language) and authority to rule. Rule what? Jesus told us he is preparing many mansions for us or seats of government.

If Jesus gave a TED Talk, he would tell us to get with the program. Our relationship with Christ is essential, and our anointing as Christians is what I see happening to our country. I wrote for the DVD and then got more material. Every thing you write puts all the pieces together. I now faithfully watch your weekly sermons on You Tube. Thank you for your ministry.

paramount, but our duty is as a pilgrim settler and part of the army of the Living God, is to contend for the Kingdom/Government of God and that involves loyalty to our Kinsman redeemer and most High King and to the Dominion Mandate. Judeo Christianity, which began merging together within years of Christ's ascension wants us to be, as my grandmother use to say, "so heavenly minded that we're no earthly good." While our fight is with high powers and principalities, it also includes a blood and sweat fight against the material ramifications of such wickedness. How that fight is carried on is another topic for another time. But it is a task we have been given. The fruit we produce will indicate whether we have surrendered ourselves at last to the Gospel of Christ or whether we were the stony ground upon which the seed fell. END a battle between good and evil. We are told as early as the apostle John, who stated in his epistle that the spirit of anti-Christ is already in the world, 1 John 4:3.

Certainly everyone with more than two brain cells should understand that not only is this beloved homeland under siege, but our people are being targeted for genocide.

The realization of the anti-white agenda is becoming more and more alarming everyday. This anti-white agenda begins with the creation of White Guilt. This is the baseline for Critical Race Theory.

There has been those of us who have been sending out this warning for years. Now it is on our door step and the government, schools, homes, television and churches.

Why? Because the people refused to listen. Here is the front page of THE TORCH from 1977.

That was 46 years ago!

Gerald L. K. Smith, the man who built the Christ of the Ozarks and the Great Passion Play in Eureka Springs, Arkansas also attempted to warn people. In 1952 he said the agenda of the globalists was to dump millions of nonwhites on the shores of America “to see to it that never again will the great white Christian majority population of America be able to express majority power.”

His warning was ignored and we are seeing the fulfillment of this warning. The White Covenant Israel people of God are being voted out of our own country. Every major city in America is now under the control of the Untermenchen. And the power of these large cities often control state politics and makes the election of White Christians in national elections problematic.

This nightmare is now upon us! It began when America refocused from being a Christ Centered/ White Centered nation to a nation centered on diversity and inclusion. It began when we thought we were God and could change the laws of nature.

Will America listen? We read in the opening pages of Ezekiel where God tells Ezekiel to go to the nation of Israel and tell them of their sin. He says “They may listen,” “They may not listen.”

The sin in that day and the sin in this day is Narcissism - a rebellion against God. The refusal to listen!

It reveals itself in different ways - but it is the same sin. It is a violation of the First Commandment. “Thou shall put no other God’s before me.”

Narcissism makes man God!

And though many people are being disturbed - most are not really listening!

Here is the front page of The Torch from about the same time as the other. The homosexual agenda was on the move way back then, but few people saw it and when I or others would attempt to warn people we were simply discarded as being haters, racists, and crazy. Those were the nice words.

And now we have these transgender freaks that has forced their way into our lives.

Our nation is in great turmoil.

And for the most part people still won't listen. Oh! They are disturbed - they just won't listen!

But where are the preachers? Who is giving warning? They will complain about the problems of America but they won't repent of the sin in America. The sin isn't trans people, BLM, Antifa, inflation, Chinese imports, gas prices, crime, etc. I know most Christians think these things are the sins of America. But they are not the sins - they are the punishment.

Most Christians are still the victims of the One World Church. Remember, the One World Church looks like the real thing, it sounds like the real thing and it even feels like the real thing. That is why it is so powerfully deceptive.

If your preacher does not warn you of the sin of Sodomy AND miscegenation, he is trapped in the One World Church. Sodomy and Miscegenation are the two sins Christ says would become powerful before the coming of the Lord. I know some of you may be tired of hearing me say it, but the sin among our people and the church is our failure to Love our God and Love our People.

There is always so much left unsaid. But I am out of room. Order my book The Last Church and it will help your understanding. $10.00
