A Simple Introduction to Christian Identity!

By Rev. Thomas A. Robb

Why are so many preachers against Christian Identity?

I suppose, considering we can't really get into their head, we can only guess that it is because they are afraid. They are not afraid of physical injury but I think they are afraid that they might get caught up in a cult, afraid they will be led into some strange teaching that will, in time, lead them away from Jesus Christ. So often they will warn the members of their congregation about the dangers of Christian Identity. Of course, the name Christian Identity is only a description of our understanding of Scripture and is not THE name. In fact other names have been used over the years,

Fugitives Remain at Large

National Guard units seeking to confiscate a cache of banned assault weapons were ambushed on April 19, 1775 by elements of a paramilitary extremist faction.

Military and law enforcement sources say that 72 were killed and more than 200 injured before government forces were compelled to withdraw. Speaking after the clash, Massachusetts Governor Thomas Gage declared that the extremist faction, which was made up of local citizens, has links to the radical rightwing tax protest movement. Gage blamed the extremists for recent incidents of vandalism directed against internal revenue offices. The governor, described the group's organizers as criminals, issued an executive order authorizing the arrest of any individuals who has interfered with the government's effort to restore law and

The Throne of David

By Rev. Thomas A. Robb

When young David killed Goliath, David instantly became a national hero. Among other things, King Saul promised that the man who killed the giant would be given his daughter in marriage. Depending on how beautiful she was, it may not have been much of an enticement. But never-the-less that was the deal.

God had a special promise to David, which included a throne covenant that was to last throughout the ages as long as the sun, moon and stars stood in the heavens and the night and day remained in their "seasons." Jere 33:20-21, Psa 89:19-20, 28-37

Because we trust in the integrity of God we trust that this covenant has not been vacated.

The death of Queen Elizabeth has brought another son of David to the throne. And soon we shall witness the coronation of Charles on Jacob's Above is a photo of King Edward's chair used in the coronation of the English monarchy. Under the seat is Jacob's Pillar, also known as Lia-Fail - the Stone of Destiny. Jacob anointed the stone while in the land of Luz and named it Bethel - The House of God! Also in the desert of Zin (Num 20) when God told Moses to speak to the rock it gushed forth water for the children of Israel.

Pillar Stone. This is the stone that Jacob rested upon when traveling through the land of Luz. He anointed the stone and named it Bethel which means the House of God.

This stone became known as the coronation stone on which all the monarchs of the House of David have been coronated since the time of David.

There is much more on this in my book Blood Trail.

Here is a small excerpt from the book.

Throughout the history of Israel, it was through a prophet or priest by which authority was given to the king or queen to reign. So the role of Jeremiah (the prophet) in building and planting the throne of David in a new land was extremely important. David was anointed king by Samuel. Below is an artistic rendering of Zadok the priest anointing Solomon as king. It was always considered that the authority to rule as king came from the Lord.

This tradition has been carried on for centuries and in keeping with the tradition, the king or queen of England is usually, but not always anointed by the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Evidently aware of this connection of the British monarchy to ancient Israel, George Frederic Handel, in 1727 moved by Scripture and tradition wrote Zadok the Priest for the coronation of King George II. It is now officially the coronation hymn, and it has been sung at the coronation of every monarch since 1727.

The song was inspired by the passage of such as Kingdom Identity, the Israel Message, and the Anglo Israel Message or perhaps just Identity. Some simply say CI.

But they are fearful of this message which identifies the white race with ancient Israel and the covenant God made with Abraham and Sarah.

I recall back in the late 1970s I was working at a real estate office and I was introducing Identity to a young girl who also worked there. She truly seemed interested and perhaps even excited. Unfortunately, when noon came she went to have lunch with her pastor and his wife. I don't know what transpired during their luncheon, but I do know upon her return she absolutely refused to discuss it any longer. I am sure the preacher warned her of this Identity "cult" during lunch.

In his book In God's Country: The Patriot Movement, David Neiwert wrote:

"The core beliefs of Christian Identity are so far astray from those of mainstream Christianity - and so repellent to average Americans - that they induce in the religion's followers a cult-like closed mindset: a sense of persecution coupled with self-righteousness that is supported by the group's social peers. True believers often drawn from the ranks of the dis-enfranchised - will not be dissuaded by any amount of logic and reason.

"They live in a kind of alternative universe, complex and wholly unlike anything in mainstream life. It is populated by soulless non-humans, satanic conspirators and a handful of true Christians who abide by "God's law." By closing off the other world, they reinforce each other's beliefs in the confines of their tight social circle."

Did you get that you "souless" person?

One website says Christian Identity is "The most dangerous cult in America."

Another web site in its article about Christian Identity begins by saying.

"There has been a great sucking sound coming from some people who say they are Christians. The sound is that of their brains being sucked out of their heads and then being replaced with the hot air of illogical rhetoric."

You must understand this is just a simple introduction to Christian Identity. It is not a complete and exhaustive study - only an introduction.

At the core of Christian Identity - is understanding the racial connection of the people of Europe with the ancient Biblical people we know as Israel.

To make it plain - the white race is Israel. It has nothing to do with religion and therefore has no church doctrine attached to it.

In order to help separate ourselves from the mainstream churches we often refer to ourselves as teachers of Christian Identity. When my wife Muriel and I first became associated with Christian Identity the people we knew called it the Israel message. Other times it has been called Israel Identity and Kingdom Identity. Sometimes people who want to attack our identity message will call it British Israel and others in an effort to taint our teaching call it Armstronism, suggesting it is some strange cult.

Why?

See CHRISTIAN IDENTITY page 6

Because you have made a study of the migrations of Israel from Palestine into Europe does that mean you are a souless drone without a brain?

1 Kings 1:34 in which the high priest of Israel, Zadok and Nathan the prophet anoints Solomon King of Israel. The inclusion of the passage of Scripture in which Solomon is anointed as King of Israel has been used at the coronation of every English monarch since at least King Edgar in 973.

The coronation ceremony is a sacred service held within a church (Westminster Abby since 1066 at the coronation of William the Conqueror). As the ceremony begins, and the king or queen is presented, those in attendance proclaim in unison, "God Save the King (Queen)" This, of course, is reminiscent of the same proclamation made at the coronation ceremonies of the Israelite Kings (1 Samuel 10:24, 2 Samuel 16:16, 2 Kings 11:12). We must understand that the role of Jeremiah was significant.

Those who would reign as king or Queen in the household or dynasty of King David must have the recognition of God

I recall watching the coronation of Queen

Elizabeth on TV in 1953. I was seven years old and my folks had great interest in this as they were aware of her relationship to David and the covenant.

Those of you who are interested can watch it on YouTube. I am aware that some of you may think to yourself, why would I be interested in the coronation of an English Queen. But when you understand this wonderful covenant God made with Abraham and Sarah and then the covenant with David and how they are connected to our racial history it helps you understand why the White race dominated the world.

All the nations of Europe are children of this great covenant.

I thought it was particularly awesome watching Elizabeth crowned Queen sitting upon this precious stone - the Stone of Destiny - Bethel - the House of God while the choir sang Zadok the Priest!

We are the children of that great covenant and we should not take it lightly. His blessing upon our people has been enormous.

We are told in Psalms 147:19-20

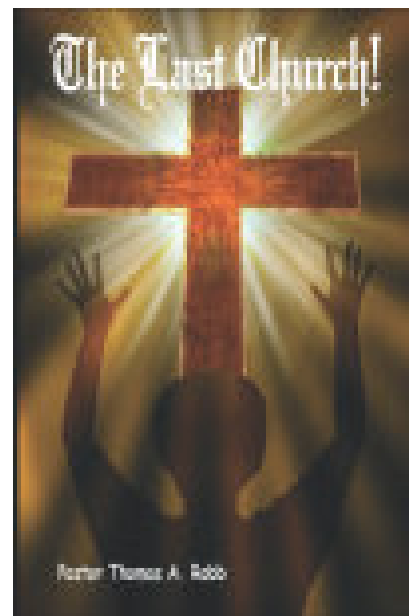

"He has revealed his word to Jacob, his laws and decrees to Israel. 20 He has done this for no other nation; they do not know his laws. Praise the LORD." END is a insightful understanding of how the Satanic Rebellion is manipulating Christianity to establish one world government. Would your grandparents recognize the modern Christian church? Jesus warned His disciples that they need to be very careful so as not to be deceived by false teaching! If the disciples of Jesus had to be careful to avoid deception then what are you doing to insure you are not deceived? We are told in Scripture that the teachings of the one world church would be popular and its deception would be powerful. Is this last church, the popular one world church of the Satanic rebellion now upon us? This book will show you how you can identify it!

The Last Church

Because people are afraid of cults. They don't want to get caught up in some strange religion that will take over their lives.

Many fundamental preachers will attempt to scare people from even researching the possibility that these sons and daughters of Europe - those we commonly call the White Race could actually be the children of that Covenant God made with Abraham and Sarah. They routinely say there is no evidence to support our claim.

In 1965, Walter Martin, published The Kingdom of Cults which included Christian Identity - calling it Armstrongism.

Imagine we get call called a cult because we dare study the migrations of the people of Israel from Palestine into Europe.

Let me show you how foolish that is.

For example:

Throughout the years there have been many migrations of people. About 300 years before Christ there was a migration of Gauls from northern France. About 85,000 Gauls traveled east, skirted the top of Italy and invaded Greece. Around 20,000 crossed over into Asia Minor and were hired as mercenaries by Nicomedes I, King of Bithynia to help combat a rebellion to his kingdom. As a reward for their service they were given the heartland of Asia Minor (Turkey). By 64 A.D. this was known as the province of Galatia. These were the people to whom Paul wrote his epistle - Galatians.

Now should those who recognize the migration of the Gauls from northern France into Greece and then Asia Minor be considered a cultist.

In the United States, between 1910 and 1930 - one and three quarter million Negroes migrated from the south into the northern industrial states and the black population exploded in cities such as Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and New York. Negro historians have called it The Great Migration.

Should you or I be considered a cult member because we recognize the migration of all these Negroes from the south into the north?

Between 1816 and 1914 - 5.5 million Germans emigrated to the U.S.

Between 1840 and 1860 three million Irish emigrated to the U.S.

Between 1825 and 1930, 850,000 Norwegians, 1,200,000 Swedes and 300,000 Danes emigrated to the U.S.

See Christian Identity page 8

This map shows the migrations of Israel from Palestine into Europe. Because of their sin God scattered Israel from out of heir homeland. James opens his epistle to the twelve tribes "scattered abroad."

Your Estate Can Continue the Campaign for White Christian Revival After Your Death

A charitable bequest is simply a distribution from your estate to a charitable organization by means of your Last Will and Testament. To insure your instructions are followed accurately, you must use very specific language to tell precisely where your assets (regardless of how small or large it may be) are to go. This insures your final wishes will be successfully carried out. In any charitable bequest, be sure to accurately give the name and address of where your bequest is to be directed.

If you would like to leave a portion of your estate to the Christian Revival Center, contact the law firm of Jason M. Robb at 870-743-2215 and he will prepare your Last Will and Testament at no charge to you or to the church. He will be able to handle this for you regardless of where you live. In other words, you do not have to be a resident of Arkansas.

If you already have your Will prepared by your own attorney, you can simply ask your attorney to add the Christian Revival Center. Jason Robb will be happy to provide proper information to your attorney.

It is important that you take care of this as soon as possible to avoid seizure of your assets, upon your death, by the state.

So should you be considered a member of a cult because you simply recognize the migration of millions of Europeans to America?

If you should tell someone of these historical migrations does that mean you are promoting a cult?

But the reality is that hundreds of thousands of Israelites migrated through the Dariel Pass over the Caucasus Mountains into eastern Europe, others traveled through Asia Minor across the Bosphorus Strait into what is now Bulgaria and Romania. Others traveled by sea to Spain then over into the Britannic Isles.

So if recognizing the migration of the Gauls into Asia Minor does not make you a member of a cult, if recognizing the migrations of millions of Europeans to America does not make you a member of a cult and if recognizing the migration of two million Negroes from the south to the north does not make you a cult member then why does recognizing the migration of the people of Israel into Europe would suddenly make you a cult member that is "souless," who had their brains "sucked out."

I will tell you why. It is because when reading the Bible it becomes very clear that Israel is the central figure in the program of God.

Remember God made His covenant with Abraham and Sarah. There is a Biblical record of this covenant in Genesis 12, 17 and 26. Other great promises to Israel are recorded in Gen. 49, Deut 33 and many other places. See CHRISTIAN IDENTITY page 8

Of this covenant Jeremiah 31 tells us that the moon, sun and stars are all witnesses to the faithfulness of God in the keeping of this covenant.

We are told over 200 times in Scripture that God refers to Himself as the God of Israel. That does not include the many times He is called the King of Israel, the Father of Israel, the Mighty One of Israel or the Salvation of Israel. The New Testament is filled with references to Israel. Luke 1:72 tells us that Jesus came to perform the mercies promised to the fathers and to remember the Holy Covenant. But when WE remember the Holy Covenant we are called racist and members of a cult. Paul said in Romans 9 that the only people he was interested in taking the gospel to was his people. Jesus said He came to Israel. And in Hebrews 6 we are told that we have assurance of our Salvation, - the anchor that is steadfast and sure is knowing God has kept his Covenant to Abraham and Sarah. We are told that of this God cannot lie.

This covenant is a big deal.

It is the central theme of the whole Bible. Even the coming, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ is focused on this covenant to Abraham. Keeping this covenant and redeeming these people was the reason Christ came and dwelt among us.

The covenant is our national charter and has greater importance to the blessings of our nation than even the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution.

Yet most people place more importance on those cheap Walmart bags which carry their groceries than on this wonderful covenant which carries our inheritance.

Sept. 21 (UPI) -- As the 2022 midterm election approaches, a controversial Tennessee pastor is defying a federal law that prohibits nonprofits -- including houses of worship -- from supporting candidates.

Pastor Greg Locke, of the Global Vision Bible Church in Mt. Juliet, Tenn., is accused of violating the law by telling his congregants in a sermon from the pulpit that they could not vote for Democrats.

Violations can lead to the Internal Revenue Service revoking an organization's tax-exempt status.

Americans United for Separation of Church and State say Pastor Greg Locke, of the Global Vision Bible Church in Mt. Juliet, Tenn., violated the law by telling his congregants in a sermon from the pulpit that they could not vote for Democrats. The Washington-based advocacy organization has asked the IRS to investigate.

Locke calls the law unconstitutional and a bullying tactic by the government to silence pastors.

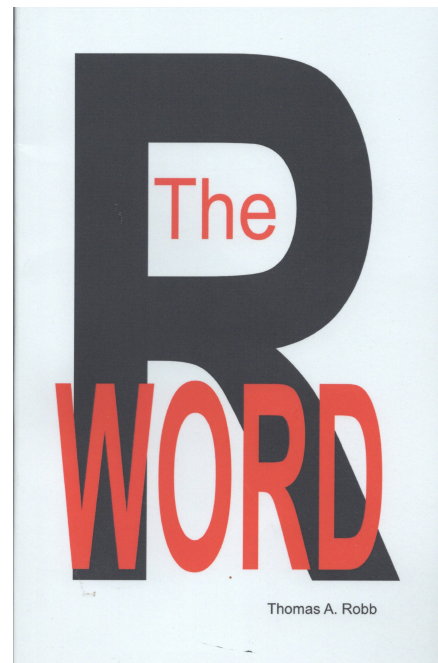

"We do not bow our knee to the IRS," Locke said in a Aug. 26 statement to UPI. "We bow only to Jesus Christ. I will continue to boldly expose the corruption of politics in our day and we are not afraid of the consequences. We have a constitutional right and a Biblical command to voice our faith and our opinion just as much as anyone else and we refuse to be silenced."

Global Vision Bible Church gave up its tax-exempt status after Americans United made its complaint, communications director Wayne Caparas said. The decision was supported by congregants, who don't care about getting a tax deduction for their donations, he said. END

When people realize who they are - it changes everything.

The Apostle Paul tells us in Romans 11:5-9:

"I say the truth in Christ. I lie not, my conscience also bearing witness in the Holy Ghost. That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart. For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh: Who are Israelites, to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises: Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever."

Preachers who oppose our announcement that we are Israel claim there is no evidence.

The passage in Isaiah 43:10 however presents a different story. It tells Israel that they are God's witnesses. Did God lie? Of course not - Israel will stand as a witnesses of the eternal God.

The white race bare witness to the adoption, we bare witness to the glory, we bare witness to the covenants, we bare witness to the law, we bare witness to the service of God and we bare witness to the promises and we bare witness to the blood atonement.

What other people can make this claim?

Satan does not want you to recognize your identity. And the false shepherds of Israel do not want you to know either.

When you know your identity - your focus changes and it will help you understand the majestic power of God.

Satan has always been at war with Israel. The Old Testament is a history of this war against the children of Israel and this war has not changed. It is the work of the Satanic rebellion to bring havoc upon the church and the genocide of the white (Israel) race.

Those who embrace the understanding of Christian Identity are not doing it out of a desire to attach themselves to a label which may then cause confusion, but do so to separate themselves from the treasonous, apostate teachings of mainstream churches who which have become the mouth piece of the One World Church.

I want to point out I am only talking about how I feel about this issue of Christian Identity. Others may feel differently.

The reason we have such latitude in interpreting Christian Identity is that it is not the name of a church or religion much less a cult. Church leaders did not sit around in a conference to vote on the name of some new religion. The name Christian Identity simply emerged and grew and gained acceptance.

Preachers in the mainstream churches will often claim that Christian Identity is a cult. This reveals both foolishness and ignorance.

Christian Identity has no "Leader." There is no spiritual head or prophet. There is no "revelation" or "vision" given to some man claiming that God spoke to him. There is no special "Holy Book" which is considered the source of spiritual knowledge given to the "followers" of Christian Identity. Again, there is no "Holy Place," "Holy Book," or "Holy Man." The only Holy place we claim is our hearts through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. The only Holy person is Jesus Christ and the only Holy book is the Bible.

They hate Christian Identity because we remember and love the covenant given to us - a covenant that is both "sure and steadfast," Hebrew 6:19.

The military raid on the extremist arsenal followed widespread refusal by the local citizenry to turn over recently outlawed assault weapons. Gage had issued a ban of military-style assault weapons and ammunition earlier in the week. The decision followed a meeting in early April between government and military leaders at which the governor authorized the forcible confiscation of illegal arms. One government official, speaking on condition of anonymity, pointed out that none of the people would have been killed had the extremists obeyed the law and turned over their weapons voluntarily.

confiscating a large supply of outlawed weapons and ammunition. However, troops attempting to seize arms and ammunition in Lexington met with resistance from heavily armed extremists who had been tipped off regarding the government's plans. During a tense standoff in Lexington's Town Park, National Guard Colonel Francis Smith, commander of the government operation ordered the armed group to surrender and return to their homes. The impasse was broken by a single shot, which was reportedly fired by one of the right-wing extremists. Eight civilians were killed in the ensuing exchange. The local citizenry blamed government forces rather than the extremists for the civilian deaths. Before order could be restored, armed citizens from surrounding areas had descended upon the guard units. Colonel Smith, finding his forces outmatched by the armed citizens, ordered a retreat.

Governor Gage has called upon citizens to support the state/national joint task force in its effort to restore law and order. The governor has also demanded the surrender of those responsible for planning and leading the insurrection against government authority. Samuel Adams, Paul Revere, and John Hancock, who have been identified as ringleaders of the current insurrection, remain at large.

Governor Gage is asking for the public's assistance in helping bring these fugitives to justice. END

But they hate and despise the covenant! They should think about what happened to Esau when he rejected the Covenant, Hebrews 12:16.

As I mentioned earlier, over 200 times God refers to Himself as the Mighty God of Israel. Not even once did he identify Himself as the Mighty God of any other people.

Amos 3:2 He tells us that Israel is the only family He has know of all the families of the earth.

In Psalms 147:20 He says he gave His laws and covenants to Israel -I have not dealt so with any other people.

In 1 Peter he tells Israel that they are a royal priesthood and a chosen race.

In Ex 19:5 He says Israel was chosen above all the people upon the earth.

Let me present a couple more statements to reveal the hatred the One World Church has for Christian Identity.

Rev. Robert Edgar, who served for 7 years as general secretary of the National Council of Churches stated.

“Even though this cult camouflages itself under the word Christian, its hate speech is not part of the Hebraic-Christian tradition.”

The council represents about 35 protestant and orthodox denominations with a total membership in the U.S. of around 50 million. He continued by saying:

“We oppose vehemently their hate speech directed against gays, lesbians, Jews, African-Americans, minorities and any others they may talk about. That talk can lead to violence and goes against the fundamental principal of our understanding of God and our understanding of the Christian faith.”

A Rev. Martin Rafanan who was executive director of the St Louis National Conference for Community and Justice. Stated:

“I would like to go on record saying the Christian Identity movement is not a church and is not Christian.”

I want us all to understand that Christian Identity has nothing to do with an established church doctrine. Among the various ministers across the nation who embrace the understanding that the white race is Israel you will find many doctrinal differences.

Christian Identity, at its core, is simply the recognition that our people are descended from the people of ancient Israel. This conclusion came about through a study of migrations and identifications given in Scripture.

I knew a man years ago who was an avowed atheist, but as a historian he was aware of the migrations of Israel into Europe.

I would like to close this by some restating some of our conclusions.

1) Christian Identity is a belief in Scripture which tells us God made a special covenant with Abraham and Sarah. The covenant says, their children would become a multitude of nations.

2) Christian Identity is a belief in Scripture which tell us that Israel fell into great sin and was cast out of their homeland.

3) Christian Identity is a belief that hundreds of thousands - even millions of these Israelites migrated into Europe.

2) Satan has always made war against Israel in an attempt to void the covenant God made with Abraham and Sarah.

3) Christian Identity is a belief that Satan is still making war against Israel to bring about white genocide.

4) Those that mock Christian Identity claim that Christian Identity leads to racism.

5) The fear of being labeled a racist is the hammer the anti-Christ use to force weak people into submission.

I want to conclude with the obvious. Isa 51:1 says:

“Hearken unto me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the Lord.”

This was a word from the Lord to the people of Israel. This clearly identifies the White Race as Israel, because historically only the white race followed “after righteousness.” Consider that righteousness is only found in Jesus Christ. He alone is the truth, the way and the light. From this we can conclude that the only people who are following after righteousness are those people which have embraced the Christian faith. That is why Christianity, historically was identified as the white man’s religion. END
