How Our Enemies Try to Control

You With FEAR Propaganda!

By Thomas A. Robb

Fear is a powerful motivator. It may be the fear that if you don't eat your vegetables you won't get the chocolate pudding for desert. Perhaps, the fear of getting a speeding ticket so you decide to follow the speed limit. Maybe you are fearful of getting rotten teeth so you avoid sweets. Here are some other fears: fear of snakes, fear of falling, fear of losing your teeth, fear of falling in love, fear of getting sick, fear of losing your hair, fear of losing your children, fear of losing your memory, fear of being poor, fear of spiders, fear of sharks, fear of getting a speeding ticket so you decide to follow the speed limit. Maybe you are fearful of getting rotten teeth so you avoid sweets. Here are some other fears: fear of your hair, fear of losing , fear of falling, fear of losing your teeth, fear of falling in love, fear of getting sick, fear of losing your kids,

Merry Christmas!

By Thomas A. Robb

I hope you are not offended by my wishing you a Merry Christmas. I say that because there are some people who will hyperventilate over the very thought of someone celebrating Christmas.

“Don't you know Christmas is pagan?,” I will be told. “It's started in BABYLON!” We will be told, “Real Christians should never celebrate Christmas and certainly should not put one of those horrid Christmas trees up in the house.”

I do want to say that I have good friends who refuse to celebrate Christmas. I have read numerous articles, books and listened to sermons about the so-called pagan holiday and the so-called pagan custom of the Christmas Tree.

Don't Wait!

Build Your Faith Now!

(While there is still time!)

By Muriel L. Robb

Events over the last couple of years have been stressful for many. Riots by Black Lives Matter, the shocking trial of Kyle Rittenhouse, the massive deception of the 2020 election, the double impeachment of Donald Trump, the flood of illegals coming across our borders, the growing WOKE military, LGBT degenerates, mutilation of children into transgendered freaks, the labeling of parents who are trying to keep a watchful eye on their children's education as domestic terrorists, inflation, gas prices, supply shortages, the raid on Donald Trump's home, lock down of our nation's economy, anti American indoctrination in our schools and colleges, Critical Race Theory, our morals dumped in the toilet and efforts to criminalize the police.

Over the years the globalist have been subtle, but now the gloves are off. They want to control America which means they want to control you. Often this control comes through peer pressure. But you are called to be strong. We are told in 2 Tim 1:7, "God has not given you the spirit of fear, but of power, love and a sound mind." Those who oppose this take over of our spirit are called racist. And people shudder in fear of being called a racist. In fact it appears that people would rather be called a pedophile than a racist. If you don't date out of your race or marry out of your race you will be called a racist. In fact, if your very best friend is not someone of color you are in danger of being called a racist.

Kids are under tremendous pressure to believe the new history lie. They are taught that globalism is wonderful and socialism is even better, race mixing is loving and transgenderism which they label as gender reassignment is even more loving. The government claims they have the power to raise your children because parents are too stupid to raise children. Why, because parents want to talk about God and all that silly religious stuff. That is old school and not WOKE. If you dare question the new social order you could find yourself ostracized at church, school, social groups and canceled off of social media. Perhaps you could lose your job or business. Yes, these are scary times. The Bible calls it the time of Jacob's trouble. Those who are young and still building their lives and families worry about the future,. Those that are elderly worry about the future of their children and what is to become of them. As the anti-white agenda breaths down upon us, the anxiety for some becomes overwhelming.

However, for those who call upon the name of the Lord, he provides for us power and a sound mind. To have that sound - disciplined - mind, our relationship with Jesus Christ must be built on the fear of losing your memory, fear of being poor, fear of spiders, fear of sharks, fear of falling asleep and perhaps even fear of a “visit” from the dreaded Boogeyman!

The Boogeyman is a mythical character parents sometimes use to scare their children into obedience, “If you’re not good - the Boogeyman will come and get you.” Personally, I was more afraid of eating the green beans than I was of the Boogeyman.

But the Boogeyman is a pretty important character that our enemies use against us. . . To make us fearful of their power. So. . .

Don’t mock the power of the Boogeyman!

In the story of the Wizard of Oz, the Boogeyman character with the booming voice was just an ordinary old guy behind the curtain. But not knowing that - the lion, the tin man, the scarecrow and Dorothy trembled with fear as they approached “the great and powerful Wizard of Oz.” But I want to talk about some Boogeymen which we have encountered over the years.

The first I would like to mention was what the 10 unfaithful spies elevated to a position of great power.

I am sure you recall from your Bible reading that after Israel was led out of Egypt by Moses, they were camped at the borders of the Promise Land. Moses sent 12 spies, 1 from each tribe, to search out the land that they were about to inherit. Two of the spies, Caleb and Joshua, came back with a positive report, basically saying “The land is ours - lets go get it.”

But the other 10 spies were filled with fear and they spread the fear into the whole camp of Israel telling them, “There are giant Bogeymen there and we are like little grasshoppers.”

OK! You caught me. They didn’t say Boogeymen. But they did say there were giants in the land, Num. 13:33. And that scared the daylight out of them for fear of the giant Boogeymen. Were there giants in the land? I don’t know and I am not necessarily willing to trust the Fake News of that day any more than the Fake News of today. But this we do know, giants or not, the fear of giants dominated their decision.

Another example of a Boogeyman in Scripture is when young David, the son of Jesse took some sandwiches to his brothers who were with the army of Israel in the valley of Elah facing off the Philistines. This time there really was a giant Boogeyman. The Bible says his name was Goliath and he was about 9 feet tall. King Saul had promised that who ever would kill Goliath would receive a financial reward, would be allowed to marry the king’s daughter and his family would not have to pay taxes. That was certainly quite an enticement, but that giant was big and no soldier took up the offer.

For 40 days - morning and evening - the giant would prance around daring any one to fight him. And everyday - the fear in the hearts of the the Israelite soldiers grew. No doubt there were some in the camp of Israel telling frightening stories of the power of the giant. Everyday, in the minds of the soldiers, the power of Goliath got bigger and bigger. He started out a big Boogeyman (giant) but after hearing fear propaganda for 40 days he was now REALLY BIG. The solders probably heard of others he fought and killed. At 9 foot tall, with long arms and a sword worthy of a giant of that size, he would be able to lop off the head of any man before he could even get close to the giant.

I think that would be enough to frighten even the bravest and most experienced soldier.

No wonder the soldiers of Israel were fearful. For 40 days and 40 nights they heard this fear propaganda over and over, again and again about the power of the Boogeyman.

I suspect that not even once did they even consider the power of the Lord. They all wanted the money and the kings daughter, but they knew they would die if they made the attempt to get her.

Then in walked young David, he delivered the sandwiches and asked what was going on here. He was told of the money, no taxes and the hand of the beautiful daughter of the king. OK, maybe she wasn’t beautiful, but it does make the story more interesting.

David immediately told the king, “Let no one lose heart on account of this Philistine; your servant will go and fight him.”

You see, David wasn’t afraid! Why? because

It is important that if you are going to attack the celebration of Christmas you insert the word “pagan” as often as possible.

I have read and heard all the arguments against Christmas.

So I trust my good friends who think the Christmas celebration is pagan (just gotta get that pagan word in as much as possible) will, at least, allow me to have joy celebrating the birth of our redeemer.

Those who celebrate Christmas will be quickly reminded “There is no place in the Bible telling us to celebrate Christmas.” But also there is no place in the Bible telling us to celebrate Memorial Day, Veterans Day, or the last day at work before you go on vacation.

But the fact is that the birth of Jesus Christ WAS celebrated.

“And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.”

Luke 2:9-14

Maybe those angels never got the memo that celebrating the birth of Jesus Christ is pagan!

And what about that nasty Christmas tree that we supposedly all dance around in some kind of pagan fetish. After all Jeremiah the prophet warned us that it was pagan!

Really!

That’s right! According to Jeremiah that nasty old PINE TREE that we bring into the house and decorate with silver and gold is pagan!

PAGAN! PAGAN! PAGAN!

Actually, before we look and examine that verse in Jeremiah 10 we need to understand that in reality we all SHOULD BRING THE PINE TREE INTO THE HOUSE!

Why?

Because our blessings come from the pine tree!

“Israel, have nothing to do with idols. I, the Lord am the one who answers your prayers and watches over you. I am like a green pine tree, your blessings come from me.”

Hosea 14:8

That’s right! The great God of Israel who led our forefathers out of Egypt, guided them into Europe and brought them to this great American wilderness, likens himself to a Pine Tree. Yes, a Pine Tree - just like those Pine Trees used as Christmas Trees. From Him we get all our blessings.

Some translations will say the tree produces fruit. Fruit is a metaphor used to demonstrate our blessings.

On October 22, Jason Robb and Thomas Robb were invited to speak at a conference in east Texas sponsored by the Aryan Freedom Network. Jason’s sons, Tayton and Caleb are seen working the literature tables.

Hello Pastor Robb:

I hope this letter finds you doing well. Would you please send me a copy of The R Word. I am looking forward to reading this book. I have included a donation to cover the cost.

I will keep this short, but back in the early 90s you came to Knox, Indiana and spoke from the courthouse. I remember it well. I still have the literature that was passed out that evening. Your appearance caused quite a stir. There was mobile TV coverage, a helicopter in the sky and a few protesters who were outnumbered by the number of supporters.

You may not remember it, but I remember it well, especially when you warned about the flood of nonwhite aliens coming into the country. It has only gotten worse, but you were warning America way back then - and before. But America didn't listen.

I love my Lord Jesus Christ, my family, my country and my race and it makes me both sad and angry with what I see happening.

If we knew then what we know now, we would have picked our own cotton.

God bless you Pastor Robb.

Reply to Bruce from Pastor Robb

Dear Bruce:

We have received your recent letter requesting to be removed from our mailing list. Your enclosed note seems to tell me that you are discouraged by the situation we face as a nation and as a people.

I understand.

My wife and I have spent our entire lives in an effort to warn our people. We are both in our late 70s and when we began this mission to build this ministry we were still teenagers. So after a lifetime, I understand discouragement and disappointments from watching this ministry grow and then suffer setbacks from those we trusted the most.

But our hope must always be in the Lord and not in man. If we look to people we will always be discouraged and disappointed. Our mission isn't just to the nation, but also to people, such as young couples just starting to build their families or to the old, bewildered by the sin of the nation.

There are hundreds of thousands of our people - young and old who need to learn to be strong and faithful. The nation may not be faithful but we must be faithful. The Lord will not judge us on how faithful the nation is, but on how faithful we are when facing the lion's den or cast into the furnace

Our mission therefore is not just to awaken the spirit of the nation but to strengthen the spirit of God's covenant people.

The world tells us to look to our hearts for strength but the Scriptures tell us to look to the Lord. Isaiah 40:31 "They that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint."

The word wait, in the Hebrew doesn't mean wait like waiting for the bus or waiting for dinner. It means to be tangled together or twisted together. In other words we must be twisted together with the Lord. We do this through prayer, studying the Word, building our trust, tithing to the Lord's work and seeking to live a righteous life in Christ.

Discouragement comes on us all, but it is important that we don't break. "They that are twisted together with the Lord will renew their strength." Renewing our strength is something we all need. There is no shame in becoming discouraged, after all we are not divine - but flawed humans. However, He alone can give us the strength to plow through the discouragements and disappointments we all face and come out as an overcomer!

As the song says, "His love has no limit. His grace has no measure. His power, no boundary known unto men. For out of His infinite mercies in Jesus. He giveth, and giveth and giveth again."

May the Lord bless you in your faithfulness!

Thomas Robb

he hadn't been listening to fear propaganda for the past 40 days.

Also he didn't care how big the Boogeyman was, he displayed his trust in the Lord. He also had that nasty little sling shot. He had no intention of getting close to the giant. And the giant soon learned.

Don't bring a sword to a slingshot fight!

The Satanic rebellion has always attempted to use fear tactics to demoralize God's Covenant people. It was done against ancient Israel and it is being done today.

Much of this generated fear is seen on the internet, but before the internet it was still being produced and circulated.

For example the very popular Century Magazine January 1928 edition printed an article by noted author and correspondent, Marcus Eli Ravage titled, A Real Case Against the Jews where he boasts of the enormous Jewish power over Christians. There are several damning quote which I may show at a later date, but for now I will satisfy myself of only presenting one.

"You make much noise and fury about the undue Jewish influence in your theaters and movie palaces. Very good: granted your complaint is well founded. But what is that compared to our staggering influence in your churches, your schools, your laws, and your governments, and the very thoughts you think every day?"

Admittedly the power of world Jewry is enormous. It would be foolish to deny it. The Jewish think tank, The American-Israeli Cooperative Enterprise proudly boasted of the number of Jews in the Biden administration. Here is a partial list.

Myron Fagan And the Illuminati

Myron Fagan was a Jewish Hollywood writer, producer and director during what has been dubbed Hollywood's Golden Age (1915-1963).

He directed some of the biggest stars in Hollywood, including Douglass Fairbanks, John Barrymore and Humphrey Bogart.

In 1967-68, Fagan produced a three record series on the Illuminati. His series focused on the power of the Communists, Globalists and other hidden forces controlled by the shadowy agents of the Illuminati. Fagan, like Marcus Ravage, boasted with excitement of this Jewish power.

Why would they boast of their power to us? Wouldn't exposing their power hurt their global intentions?

rock. Just the idea of believing in God will not make the grade. Jesus knows us for we are his heritage and he will be faithful to us. He keeps his covenants. He cannot and will not surrender His people to Satan and this one world government that is forming around us. That is why we are to put on the full armor of God so we can stand in this evil day. He will conquer and we will conquer also, if we are faithful to Him. If we want to build our faith, it would be good to focus on the Scriptures such as Psalms 107. Remember faith is not something you instantly get - it is something you build. Begin building now.

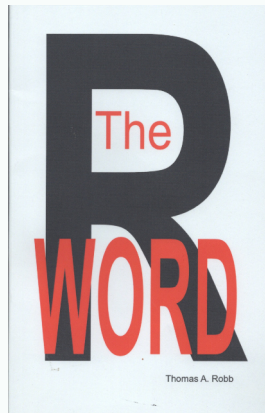

We must be prepared for what ever is coming our way. Develop fellowship with other Covenant Christians. Like in the days of Noah - we may be facing a flood. We must get in our ark before the door is shut. Unite your life in Jesus, invest your time and talent to what we are told in song "His dear cause." Don't hoard your worldly wealth, but be faithful in your tithe and contributions to the Lord's work. We are told "Where your treasure is there will your heart be also!" Examine your life and consider where is your heart? Be a witness for the Lord's work, but in being a witness make sure you are a good witness. END

Your Estate Can Continue the Campaign for White Christian Revival After Your Death

A charitable bequest is simply a distribution from your estate to a charitable organization by means of your Last Will and Testament. To insure your instructions are followed accurately, you must use very specific language to tell precisely where your assets (regardless of how small or large it may be) are to go. This insures your final wishes will be successfully carried out. In any charitable bequest, be sure to accurately give the name and address of where your bequest is to be directed.

If you would like to leave a portion of your estate to the Christian Revival Center, contact the law firm of Jason M. Robb at 870-743-2215 and he will prepare your Last Will and Testament at no charge to you or to the church. He will be able to handle this for you regardless of where you live. In other words, you do not have to be a resident of Arkansas.

If you already have your Will prepared by your own attorney, you can simply ask your attorney to add the Christian Revival Center. Jason Robb will be happy to provide proper information to your attorney.

It is important that you take care of this as soon as possible to avoid seizure of your assets, upon your death, by the state.

Give Thanks!

unto the LORD
call upon his name:
make known his deeds
among the people!
Psalms 105:1

By Jason M. Robb J.D.

This past month most of us gathered around our dinner table to thank the Lord for his blessings and care over our lives.

Our people have a history of acknowledging and thanking Almighty God for His blessings. Throughout time, our people, from ancient Israel to our early Pilgrim settlers, gathered to thank God for His deliverance, abundance and mercy. In ancient Israel, the nation of Israel celebrated the Feast of Tabernacles which was essentially a “Thanksgiving” celebration. Deuteronomy 16:13-15 says to the nation of Israel, “Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seven days, after that thou has gathered in thy corn and thy wine: And thou shalt rejoice in thy feast....”.

A call of Thanksgiving was given in 1 Chronicles 16 when the return of the Ark of the Covenant to the city of David. David wrote in Psalm 105, “Give thanks unto the Lord; call upon his name: make known his deeds among the people. Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: talk ye of all his wondrous works, Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD. Seek the LORD, and his strength: seek his face evermore. Remember his marvelous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth; ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen. He is the Lord our God: his judgments are in all the earth. He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations. Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac and confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant.”

Nehemiah reminds us of a great day of Thanksgiving at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem. Nehemiah 12:43 says, “Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.”

In the New Testament we are told to give thanks. 1 Thessalonians 5:18 says, “In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.”

Jeremiah 30 tells us about the future America when it says the nation would be governed by elected representatives, men chosen among the people and would not have a king. Verse 21 says, “And the nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near; and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? Said the Lord.” And then we read in verse 19 that we will be giving thanks, “And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that makes merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.”

We then see the first Thanksgiving here in America celebrated by the Pilgrims in Plymouth, Massachusetts in 1626. After their first harvest, and after they went through a harsh winter and great starvation, Governor Bradford proclaimed a day to thank God for their preservation and the food to sustain them.

After the American Revolution, our Lord and Savior continued to place His blessings on our people and our beloved America and upon this new Republic. President George Washington in his Thanksgiving Proclamation of 1789 stated:

“Whereas, it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and humbly to implore His protection, aid, and favors:

Now therefore I do recommend and assign Thursday, the 26th day of November next to be devoted by the people of these states to the service of that Great, Glorious Being Who is the Beneficent Author of all the good and was, that is, or that will be; that we may then all unite in rendering unto Him our sincere and humble thanks for His kind care and protection of the people of this country, and for all the great and various favors which He has been pleased to confer upon us.”

What a wonderful history our people have in praising our God and giving Him all the glory and Thanks that he has bestowed upon us. END

So what about Jeremiah’s condemnation of the Christmas Tree.

The fact is he wasn’t talking about decorating a tree at all. It is plain as the nose on Chuck Schumer’s face. Jeremiah is not talking about the tree but what the workman with an axe (chisel) makes from the tree.

“Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them. For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe. They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.”

I have run out of room but, compare Jere 10 with Isaiah 44:9-15. Isaiah tells us the idol has legs and a mouth. Trees have neither, but an idol fashioned by a skilled craftsman will have both. They have legs, but cannot walk and a mouth but cannot speak.

Jeremiah is talking about the idol (shown here) made from a tree and not the tree itself.

OK I have A LOT more in my book, Christmas and the Pagan Myth. Order one today and get it in time for Christmas. It will answer all your questions.

Jews, Muslims, “Eastern” religions and other pagans actually hate Christmas. They may love the “holiday” but they hate the message of Christmas and the message of Christmas is proclaiming Jesus Christ as King. This message is contained in all those Christmas Carols we sing each year. Christmas is really about the KINGSHIP of Jesus Christ. Here are two examples. I think THAT is something to celebrate.

*Joy to the World: The Lord is come
- Let earth receive her King!

Hark the herald angels sing Glory to the newborn King!

Currently another shadowy Jewish figure is Henry Makow. He has written numerous books claiming to expose Jewish power in banking, industry, entertainment and politics. Reading Makow, like Ravage and Fagan, it is easy to believe in the Illuminati's total and complete power over our lives. There is the constant bombardment highlighting the power of the Illuminati and other sinister forces.

However, it is interesting, his books can be purchased on Amazon. I have the original Fagan Illuminati series in my library, but you can also buy it from Amazon.

Why? Why would information that exposes the whole nefarious scheme of the Illuminati be so readily available?

Really, if they have THAT MUCH POWER why don't they shut it all down?

Why did Ravage, Fagan and now Makow spend so much time advertising this absolute power of the Illuminati? It seems like they are saying, "See how much power we have and there is nothing you can do about it."

They want you to be afraid of the Bogeyman!

It is the same reason we saw Gavin Newsom ignore his own mask mandate during the recent Covid-19 plandemic. It was his way of saying, "I have power and you do not!" We saw the same thing with others such as Stacey Abrams, Maxine Waters and Nancy Pelosi.

Sometimes Conservative pundits will "expose" the hypocrisy of those who violate their own rules, thinking it will shame them.

Jere 6:15 "Are they ashamed of their detestable conduct? No, they have no shame at all; they do not even know how to blush."

It doesn't shame them. In fact they WANT you to see them breaking the very rules they demand YOU to obey. It is a way to demonstrate their power over you!

Our enemies boast of their power; Ravage did, Fagan did and now Makow does, as well as Jewish reporter Joel Stein, who in a Dec. 19, 2008 Los Angeles Times column titled Who runs Hollywood? boasted of almost the complete Jewish dominance over Hollywood. In fact, according to Stein, Jews also control the porn industry as well.

Regarding their control of the porn industry, Abe Foxman of the ADL stated that the Jewish porn movie producers are just businessmen in pursuit of "the American dream."

The Apostle Paul warned us (Eph 6:12) that we are fighting "against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places."

Yes, there are dark forces, the Apostle Paul warned us 2,000 years ago, and now our eyes can see this ugly force around us every day.

Those people (what ever name they may be traveling under) want you to see their power. The Ravages, Fagans, Makows and Steins of the world do this to intimidate you to make you afraid of the Bogeyman.

They want you to spend the next 40 days and 40 nights thinking how big their giant is.

Sure, they may tell a lot of truth, but that is only so you will trust them and their exposure of these "principalities and powers." But ultimately they want to redirect your faith away from the Lord and have you become consumed with fear. Because fear makes you a victim.

We have to be careful. David knew the giant was big, he knew he was powerful and he knew the giant was a fierce warrior. But he didn't have to listen to him boast of his power for 40 days and 40 nights.

Be careful not to be overwhelmed by Fear Propaganda put out by our enemies. It is only a part of their scheme to control you.

Don't Delay

Two years ago, this month, a good friend and supporter of the church called me and said he wanted to give his estate to the church upon his passing. He was elderly (but not really old). I thanked him and said I would have our attorney give him a telephone call to prepare his Will.

He and his wife (who had died) had one child - a daughter - which was completely rebellious to all that he and his wife embraced. He said he loved her but couldn't justify leaving his estate to her when he knew she would totally abuse it.

Though he felt obligated to leave some to her, the majority he wanted to go to the church.

However, he said he would rather make the arrangements in person instead of over the telephone and mail. His plans were to attend the Faith and Freedom Conference in April and make arrangements at that time.

He died in early March. His desire was to help the ministry of the Christian Revival Center. But it never happened. He didn't know that death was about to knock on his door.

We never know when we will be called to stand before God.

Windows delivered

Windows being carried in Windows being installed in dinning hall

The Christian Revival Center's new dinning hall is progressing nicely. By the time you receive this in the mail all the windows will be installed. Of course with the cold days of winter at our front door, having these windows is extremely important.

The cost of installing the heating and cooling will be about $7,000. We have $2,000 and so about $5,000 short. Certainly there are some church supporters on our mailing list that can help get this completed.

This will be a huge benefit for folks attending the Faith & Freedom Family Gathering scheduled for April 28, 29 & 30 and, course, for all future events as well.

This Christian outpost in middle America is your voice for White Christian Revival.

Mark your calendar and see you in April!
